Membership Update

As of June 30th, Forbes had 345 paid members. In 2000, the membership totaled 228. Quite an increase! As you might imagine it is a major job keeping all the members informed of events, closings, and any other news that they need to know. Our newsletter or postcard card notice is sent out quarterly but that's frequently not timely enough for fast breaking news, such as an unexpected range closing. For that reason we keep urging our members to access the Forbes' website (see above) where it is easier to update the information which our members need.
